Celebrating Drinking Water and Wastewater Professionals Appreciation Day

Monday, June 30th, the Bedford Regional Water Authority (BRWA) joins communities nationwide in celebrating Drinking Water and Wastewater Professionals Appreciation Day. This day is a special occasion dedicated to honoring the hardworking individuals who ensure our water remains clean, safe, and reliable. These unsung heroes work tirelessly behind the scenes, maintaining and upgrading critical infrastructure that millions of people depend on every day.

Drinking Water and Wastewater Professionals Appreciation Day is more than just a day of recognition; it is a moment to highlight the essential work these professionals do, often in challenging conditions, to protect public health and the environment. From treating and distributing clean drinking water to managing wastewater systems, their work is crucial in sustaining the quality of life for everyone.

"Our water and wastewater professionals work hard every day to keep things running smoothly," said Brian Key, Executive Director of the Bedford Regional Water Authority. "Their dedication means our communities can count on safe, clean water without a second thought. Today is a great opportunity to say thank you and let them know how much we appreciate what they do."

The Bedford Regional Water Authority encourages everyone to take a moment today to appreciate the critical work of these professionals. Whether it's through a simple thank you, participating in community events, or learning more about the water systems that serve us, every gesture counts in showing our support and appreciation.
